Read about the African American person and complete the activities below!

X

is for Malcolm X!

Malcolm X was a civil rights activist. Growing up, his parents taught him to be proud of being black. He became known for his speeches based on his beliefs and the teachings of the Nation of Islam. He believed that black people should support each other's businesses. He also believed that black people should fight for equal rights by any means necessary. He was very critical of the civil rights movement and leaders.
