

BLACK HISTORY MONTH ABCS

Read about the African American person and complete the activities below!

Z is for Zora Neale Hurston!

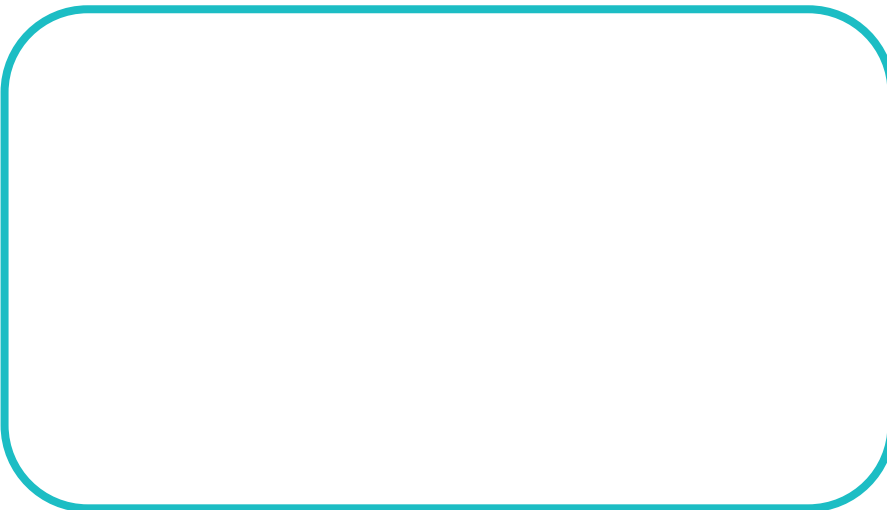

Zora Neale Hurston was an author and anthropologist. She wrote stories about racial struggles in the South during the 1900s. She was most known for writing the novel, Their Eyes Were Watching God. During her lifetime, she wrote over 50 essays, plays, and short stories.

Draw a picture of the person.

1. WHO IS ZORA NEALE HURSTON?

2. WHAT IS SOMETHING SHE ACCOMPLISHED?

“Some people could look at a mud puddle and see an ocean with ship.”
–Zora Neale Hurston