Write a Story

The following three sentences are options for inspiration.

1. It was a dark and stormy night.
2. The lighthouse stood by the sea, as it always had.
3. "I'm not the one you should be afraid of."
4. There must always be a Mark at Summerhall.

Write a short story inspired by one of the above writing prompts. You may choose to have the sentence in your story, or you can use it just as inspiration. Your story must have at least 6 sentences.
